

Calm the Mind, Don't Dull the Mind

It is very natural for kids to be boisterous, energized, and chatty. But what about very short attention spans? Chronic crankiness? Angry outbursts at school? These less desirable traits are not uncommon for children that have a lot going on inside their bodies and minds. As David Sandoval says, "Much conflict comes from internal conflict – you stop the internal conflict; you will stop external conflict." Nobody wants to turn their children into zombies, but unfortunately that seems to have become the trade-off nowadays...but not anymore!

David spent over a year working with 3 master Chinese herbalists to design our new In Focus tincture to help bring your child's attention span and mood back to balance naturally. In Focus does not contain stimulants or depressants, just traditionally used, scientifically supported ingredients like chamomile and eleuthero root that will help your child be alert, but calm. And still a kid...just a kid in a better mood with a greater ability to focus on their tasks at hand.

- Creates a calm focus
- No central nervous stimulants
- Herbs that are safe for children

Not Your Grandma's Fiber Drink

Unfortunately, truth is that most fiber products and most detox products are poorly formulated using inexpensive and harsh ingredients and may cause harm than good. Sort of like using a chainsaw when a knife will do!

But fiber is important. Studies actually show that fiber is more essential to daily living than previously understood in order to prevent unhealthy digestion and food borne illness. The simplest thing you can do, the most effective way to cleanse, detoxify, and restore your body is through the plant power found in Purium's proprietary Daily Fiber Blend.

Not to be confused with fiber drinks of old filled with artificial flavors and colors and GMOs, Daily Fiber Blend works gently but effectively with the power of specially selected plant based ingredients. NO genetically modified maltodextrin. NO unnecessary cheap fillers. NO petroleum based Yellow no. 5. Daily Fiber Blend is made up of foods such as enzyme-rich sprouts, detoxifying and parasite eliminating fennel, walnut, and pumpkin seeds, nourishing fats from flax, chia seed, and rice bran, and soluble and dietary fibers from whole foods and whole food extracts.

We recommend combining Daily Fiber Blend with the Herbal Fiber Cleanse and our green drinks such as Organic Barley Green Juice for comprehensive digestive and immune system support.
