5-STAR CROWN
David Skultety

David Skultety is a passionate Lifestyle Entrepreneur. He is a veteran of the industry, both as a distributor and a business consultant, and loves the freedom and lifestyle it affords for his family and so many others. Because David is a professional network marketer, he sets his own schedule and enjoys residual income. For David, network marketing isn't about the money; it's the lifestyle that is important. It is important to him that his kids grow up with their parents present in their lives for all the big and small moments and everything in between. Beyond creating an amazing lifestyle for his own family, David finds joy in helping others do the same: "People are conditioned to believe that they have to trade time for dollars, but there is a flat-out easier model we can teach them about," David says, "I'm passionate about helping others achieve their personal definition of freedom."
