

DAILY FIBER BLEND CARMEL APPLE

Losing weight can be challenging, even after making a conscious effort to incorporate healthy choices. However, this might be because you lack the “Skinny Hormone” called adiponectin, that tells your body to use fat as fuel. Studies show that the more adiponectin you have, the easier it will be to burn fat and the leaner you will be. Rest assured – our new Daily Fiber Blend contains the high-quality, gluten-free organic fiber that actually increases adiponectin for bodies that struggle to make it on their own. Plus, the all-natural caramel apple flavor tastes great!
